Middough Announces New President, Carl E. Wendell

Carl E. Wendell Becomes Its Third Leader.

CLEVELAND, OH (April 27, 2016) — Middough Inc., announces the promotion of a top executive President and Chief Operating Officer Carl E. Wendell from his previous role as executive vice president and chief operating officer.

Chairman and CEO Ronald R. Ledin states, “Carl has been a pivotal leader in our 66 year history. As part of our succession planning he is transitioning to his new role as president effective immediately. As an experienced and well respected leader in the EAC industry, he is well suited to assume these responsibilities and lead Middough forward. On behalf of the Executive Team we congratulate Carl on his new position and look forward to working with him in the future.”

Mr. Wendell states, “It’s been a pleasure to help lead an outstanding group of employees over the past five years and to help lead Middough’s successful restructuring. Their smart work and commitment are critical to our efforts and help ensure that Middough continues to play an important role in our dynamic industry.”

Background on Carl E. Wendell

Wendell has been in the design, engineering and construction solutions business for 30 years. He joined Middough after prior growth, leadership and ownership at VSGI, AECOM and The Austin Company. During his career he has led the development of business and execution of projects and programs in the process, industrial, biopharma and manufacturing industries and has earned extensive skills in contracts, EPCM, design-build and alternative project delivery. He holds a bachelor of science in construction management from Western Michigan University and earned his master of business administration at the University of Illinois.
