Middough Names Carl Wendell EVP & COO

Wendell, a seasoned company leader, promoted to newly created position.

CLEVELAND, Ohio (September 23, 2014) — Middough Inc., a top ranking U.S. engineering, architecture, and management services company, is pleased to announce the promotion of Carl Wendell to executive vice president and chief operating officer of the company. In his new role he will be responsible for overseeing all business and resource operations while retaining his current responsibilities as general manager of the Technology Group. Mr. Wendell will provide leadership for a more rigorous and coordinated effort to improve project performance and quality across the company.

Mr. Wendell has been with Middough since 2011 and has taken leadership and development roles in the company's Major Projects Group, environmental health and safety (EHS) program, risk management, and many quality improvement programs over the past few years. "We have been very impressed with Carl's ability to get things accomplished here at Middough. This, coupled with his experience and skills positions him nicely to take the company into the next level of our strategic plan," states Ronald R. Ledin, president and chief executive officer of Middough Inc.

"I am pleased to be a part of such a growing organization," says Mr. Wendell. "The vision set forth by senior management is aggressive, yet very obtainable. I welcome the opportunity and look forward to my next challenge here at Middough," he states.
