Middough Atlanta Office Celebrates Three Year Anniversary

CLEVELAND, Ohio (November 8, 2011) — Middough Inc., celebrates the three year anniversary of their Atlanta, Georgia office this October. With dozens of employees and a wealth of knowledge, Middough Atlanta has been a growth market for the 60 year old company. Middough's Atlanta staff currently consists of several design and engineering professionals working closely with our other national offices. The Atlanta office staff has an average of 28+ years of experience and is comprised of architects, civil engineers, structural engineers, MEP engineers and process engineers.

President and CEO Ronald R. Ledin says, "With local knowledge, local client relationships, broad expertise, and the stability and resources of an established company, our team is committed to provide the highest quality of service, performance, and project leadership in the Southeast U.S. Region."

Middough has continued to expand our geography, our organization, our business focus and our business leadership. During the recent economic downturn, while other firms were downsizing, Middough continued to grow strategically and position ourselves to better serve our clients. Utilizing our shared network and electronic communications, Middough routinely executes projects using support from other offices in a seamless cost-effective manner.

Combining our national resources with our ability to execute services locally has allowed our company to continue to grow with our clients and provide "Performance You Trust". Our relationship based culture promotes teamwork, trust, and commitment to quality. Our credentials are evidenced by these current rankings:

- Ranked #23 of Giants 300 in Building Design and Construction
- Ranked #99 of Top 500 Design Firms in Engineering News Record
- Ranked #69 of Top 100 Pure Designers in Engineering News Record

Middough's multi-disciplinary approach provides clients with a multi-discipline, single source for architecture, engineering and management. We provide a seamless synergy of specialists, resources and services to take projects from inception to completion. Middough offers a complete range of services to help our clients maintain a competitive advantage in today's marketplace. From initial planning and feasibility to move-in training, we have the resources to meet the client's needs.
